Dear Sir or Madam:

Re- Need to File Updated Information on
Pending Petition for a closed captioning
Exemption

Thank you for your letter dated July 18, 2012, requesting additional information, in addition to the information provided in our previous letter dated June 13, 2012.

We have included information about costs associated with captioning our programs. We have two thirty-minute Programs on Sunday only. The estimated cost of providing captioning for the two programs will be $320.00 since the programs are on different T.V. stations. (Please see Package II on the attached Service cost estimates).

We have not sought funding for captioning because it is not feasible in the area in which we live. We are a small church currently using a 75-seat shop-front auditorium and our T.V. program barely covers a 60-mile radius. Our audience is miniscule, judging from the few responses we get. (Please see the attached map of the area covered).

We have previously given information about our precarious financial state. Kindly help us to continue with our programs in the current setting until our church grows larger and our finances improve.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Philip A. Togun', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
